4(xiv) All documents/pleadings in a case shall be filed before 12.00 noon where the case is listed on the next working day.

4(xv) The Registry shall deliver copies of order or any other document only to the advocates/law firms or their authorised representatives or persons who are parties to the proceedings.

~Inserted by amendment 2 of 2006

[^]Modified by amendment 1 of 2006

5. Date of Presentation of petition/appeal/misc. application/other pleadings-

The Registrar or, as the case may be, the officer authorised by him, shall endorse on every petition/appeal/misc. application/other pleadings the date on which it is presented and shall sign the endorsement.

6. Rejection or Amendment of petition/appeal -

- (i) The Tribunal may, in its discretion, on sufficient cause being shown, accept a petition/appeal which is not accompanied by required documents or is in any other way defective, and in such cases may require the petitioner/appellant to file such documents or, as the case may be to remove the defects by making the necessary amendments within such time as it may allow.
- (ii) The Tribunal may reject the petition/appeal referred to in 6 (i) above, if the documents referred to, therein are not produced, or defect not removed or the amendments are not made, within 90 days from the filing of the petition/appeal.
- (iii) On re-presentation of any petition/appeal after making the necessary amendments referred to in 6(i) above, the petition/appeal shall be signed and dated by the officer competent to make the endorsement under (5) above.
- (iv) The Chairperson may in his discretion authorise any officer of the Tribunal to return any petition/appeal or document(s) which is/are not in accordance with the Telecom Disputes Settlement &

Appellate Tribunal Procedures, 2005. The officer so authorised may, however, allow the documents to be re-filed after removal of the defects within the specified time prescribed in 6 (ii) above.

Provided that on re-presentation, the Bench may in its discretion either accept the petition/appeal in terms of 6 (i) above or reject the same in terms of 6 (ii) above but the petition/appeal may not be restored to its original number unless the Bench allows it to be so restored on sufficient cause being shown.

7. Document authorising representative to be attached to the petition/appeal-

- (i) Where the parties to a petition/appeal are being represented in such Petition/Appeal by authorised representatives, the documents authorising such representatives to appear on their behalf shall be appended to the Petition/Appeal if they are signed by the authorised representatives and the said documents shall indicate clearly the status of the authorised representatives and their qualifications to act as authorised representatives under the Act.

Provided that where the authorised representative is a legal practitioner, such document of authorisation shall be a duly executed vakalatnama.

- (ii) The document in 7 (i) above may be an authorisation letter/ copy of resolution passed by the Board of Directors, or the Managing Committee or any other authority competent under the Articles of Association/ Rules of the organisation, authorising the applicant to file the case before the Tribunal;

8. Filing of authorisation at a later stage-

- (i) Subject to the satisfaction of the Bench, in cases where an authorised representative known to the Bench has been engaged but is unable to file immediately the document authorising him to appear and plead along with the petition/appeal for any reason, he may file a Memo of Appearance along with an undertaking to file the duly executed vakalatnama in lieu of the document of authorisation for such time as the Bench may in its discretion allow.
- (ii) In case the direction of the Bench, including extended time if any, is not followed, the Bench may in its discretion withhold the issue of the order or stay its operation till the compliance is duly made and/or refrain from extending the facilities in future.

9. Listing of a petition/appeal/ misc. application-

- (i) On receipt of a petition/ appeal/ misc. application in the Registry, scrutiny of the same will be done. Objections, if any, shall be communicated to the concerned parties/ counsel. If a case is found in order, the same shall be listed on any suitable working day after at least one week of filing. However, the party/ counsel can make an application for urgent listing of the matter, and their request shall be considered by the Registry for urgent listing on the next working day as far as possible and if it has any objection in this regard, except clear objections as to the adherence of the laid down procedure for filing the application, the case should be submitted along with its objections for the decision of the Bench.

- (ii) Mentioning of a case/ matter may be made by the party/ counsel at the start of proceedings of the Bench at 10.30 a.m. on any working day.

10. Date and Place of hearing to be notified-

- (i) The Tribunal shall notify to the parties the date and place of hearing of the petition/appeal/misc. application.
- (ii) The issue of notice referred to in 10 (i) above shall not by itself be deemed to mean that the petition/appeal has been admitted.

11. Hearing of petition/appeal-

- (i) On the day fixed, or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the petitioner/appellant shall be heard in support of the petition/appeal.
- (ii) The Tribunal shall then, if necessary, hear the respondent against the petition/appeal and in such a case the respondent shall be entitled to reply.

12. Action on petition/appeal for petitioner's/appellant's default-

Where on the day fixed for the hearing of the petition/appeal or on any other day to which such hearing may be adjourned, the petitioner/appellant does not appear when the petition/appeal is called on for hearing, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, either dismiss the petition/appeal for default or hear and decide it on merits

Provided that where the petition/appeal has been dismissed for default and the petitioner/appellant appears or files a misc.

application, and satisfies the Tribunal that there was sufficient cause for non-appearance when the petition/appeal was called on for hearing, the Tribunal may allow restoration of the petition/appeal.

13. Hearing of petition/appeal/misc. application ex-parte- Where on the day fixed for hearing of the petition/appeal/ misc. application or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned the petitioner/appellant/applicant appears and the respondent does not appear when the petition/appeal/misc. application is called on for hearing, the Tribunal may hear and decide the petition/appeal/misc. application ex parte.

14. Proceedings before the Tribunal shall be guided by the principles of natural justice and the provisions of the Act. If any particular proceedings require a trial to be conducted then the Tribunal shall first settle the points for determination based on the pleadings of the parties. Any evidence to be led by the parties in support of their case shall be filed by way of affidavits of the witnesses concerned whose list shall be filed in the Tribunal immediately after the determination of points for consideration. If the Tribunal so desires on its own motion or on the request of the parties, it may direct the presence of the deponent of the affidavit for cross-examination.

Notwithstanding the above procedure, if the Tribunal, after considering the facts of any particular case, is of the opinion that any other procedure for trial should be adopted which is more suited for the disposal of such cases, the Tribunal may then follow such a procedure after making the parties known of such procedure in advance and such procedure shall also follow the directions found in Section 16 of the Act.

- 15 Continuance of proceedings after death or adjudication as an insolvent of a party to the Petition/Appeal - Where in any proceedings the petitioner/appellant or a respondent dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent or in the case of a company is being wound up, the petition/appeal shall abate, unless an application is made for continuance of such proceedings by or against the successor-in-interest, the executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator or other legal representative of the petitioner/appellant or respondent, as the case may be.

Provided that every such application shall be made within a period of sixty days of the occurrence of the event.

Provided further that the Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the application within the period so specified, allow it to be presented within such further period as it may deem fit.

- 16. Adjournment of petition/appeal/misc. application- The Tribunal may, on such terms as it thinks fit and at any stage of the proceedings, adjourn the hearing of the petition/appeal/misc. application.

- 17. Proceedings to be open to public- The proceedings before the Tribunal shall be open to the public:
- Provided that the Tribunal may, if it thinks fit, order at any stage of the proceedings of any particular case that the public generally or any particular person shall not have access to, or be or remain in, the room or building used by the Tribunal.
- 18. Orders of the Tribunal- Every order of the Tribunal shall be in writing and shall be signed by the Members constituting the Bench.
- 19. Change of authorised representative- In case petitioner/appellant/respondent changes the person authorised to represent him after the filing of the petition/appeal then the fact of such a change may be indicated by way of memorandum addressed to the Tribunal or an endorsement or Vakalatanama or document of authorisation and upon such communication or endorsement the Bench may not insist on filing of a no-objection certificate from the previous authorised representative except where in the opinion of the Bench it was called for in a given case.
- 20. Communication of orders to parties- Any order passed in regard to the petition/appeal/misc. application shall be communicated to the petitioner/appellant/applicant and the respondent either in person or by registered post.
- 21. Copies of orders/pleadings:

- (i) The registry will supply copies of certified and uncertified orders of the Tribunal on demand and on payment of a fee of Rs.3/- per page and Rs.2/- per page respectively.
- (ii) Copies of pleadings in a decided case would be supplied, on demand, after payment of Rs. 2/- per page.

22. Inspection of records- For inspection of any case file/ document the concerned party/ counsel shall be required to make an application to the Registry. No inspection of the file/ document shall be allowed on a day when the case has been listed on the next working day.

23. Orders and directions in certain cases- The Tribunal may make such orders or give such directions as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to in relation to its orders or to prevent abuse of its process or to secure the ends of justice.

24. Working hours of the Registry- Except on Saturdays, Sundays and Central Government holidays, the registry shall, subject to any order made by the Chairperson, be open daily from 9.30 a.m. to 6.00 p.m.

25. Sittings of the Tribunal-

- (i) The Tribunal shall ordinarily not hold sittings on Saturdays, nor on any Sundays and other Central Government holidays.
- (ii) The Tribunal shall ordinarily sit at 10.30 a.m.

26. Officers of the Tribunal and their functions-

- (i) The Registrar shall have the custody of the records of the Tribunal and shall exercise such other functions as are assigned to him under these procedures or by the Chairperson by a separate order.
- (ii) The Registrar may, with the approval of the Chairperson delegate to any officer of the Tribunal any function required by these procedures to be exercised by the Registrar.
- (iii) The official Seal shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar or any other authorised officer.
- (iv) Subject to any general or special directions given by the Chairperson, the Seal of the Tribunal shall not be affixed to any order or other processes save under the authority in writing of the Registrar [or other authorised officer]
- (v) The Seal of the Tribunal shall not be affixed to any certified copy issued by the Tribunal save under the authority in writing of the Registrar [or any other officer]

27. Additional powers and duties of the Registrar- In addition to the powers conferred by these procedures, the Registrar shall have the following powers and duties subject to any general or special order of the Chairperson, namely:-

- (i) to require any petition/appeal/misc. application or other proceeding presented to the Tribunal to be amended in accordance with the practice and procedure of the Tribunal or to be re-presented after such requisition as the Registrar is empowered to make in relation thereto has been complied with;

- (ii) subject to the directions of the Bench, to fix the date for hearing petitions/appeals/misc. applications or other proceedings and issue notices thereof;
- (iii) to settle the index in cases where the record is prepared in the Tribunal.
- (iv) to direct any formal amendment of record; and
- (v) to order the grant of copies of documents to parties to proceedings, and to grant leave to inspect the records of the Tribunal under procedure 22 above.

28. Seal and Emblem: The official Seal and Emblem of the Tribunal shall be such as the Chairperson may prescribe.

29. Interpretation -- In case of any doubt as to the interpretation to these procedures, the matter shall be placed before the Hon'ble Chairperson who shall have the power to modify, waive and exempt the operation of any of these procedures by specific or general direction.

(Amendment 1 of 2006)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 16(1) of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997 (as amended) and in amendment of Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal Procedures, 2005, the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal modifies procedure 4 (ix), procedure 4 (xi) and inserts procedures 4 (ix) (A) and 4 (ix) (B) which read as under:

4 (ix) Petition/Appeal/Misc. Application shall accompany the required fees in the form of demand draft, in favour of Drawing and Disbursing Officer, Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal. The fees for filing an appeal shall be as provided in Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal (Form, Verification and the Fees for Filing an Appeal)

Rules, 2003. The fees for filing a miscellaneous application shall be Rs. 1,000/-.

4 (ix) (A) The amount of fees payable on petitions, next hereinafter mentioned, filed before Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal shall be Rs. 5000/-.

- (i) Petition seeking declaratory relief.
- (ii) Petition seeking directions, injunction and permanent injunction.
- (iii) Petition seeking enforcement of regulations framed by Telecom Regulatory Authority of India under the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997 (as amended).
- (iv) Any other petition not covered above shall also be accompanied with fees of Rs. 5000/-

Provided that the fees for filing petitions/claims/suits in the nature of recovery of money or an outstanding amount, before Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal shall be computed as follows:

- (i) In petitions/claims/suits for money (including those for damages or compensation or total outstanding) due on the date of filing of petitions/claims/suits – at an ad valorem rate of 1.5% of the total amount claimed, including interest, if any.
- (ii) In petitions/claims/suits for money payable periodically under the terms of the agreement between the parties – at an ad valorem rate of 1.5% of the sum total of all periodical amounts claimed with interest, if any, on the date of filing of the petitions/claims/suits.

4 (ix) (B) Decision on questions as to valuation –

- (i) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of fees chargeable on petitions/claims/suits under the proviso to procedure 4 (ix) (A) shall be decided by the Bench of the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the petitions/claims/suits.
 - (ii) Whenever a question of valuation is placed before the Bench for consideration and the Bench determines the proper fees payable on such petitions/claims/suits, the proceedings in such petitions/claims/suits shall be stayed until such time as the proper fees is paid. If the proper fees is not paid within such time as the Bench shall fix, the petitions/claims/suits shall be dismissed.
- 4 (xi) No fees shall be payable on filing of affidavits including additional affidavits.

(Amendment 2 of 2006)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 16(1) of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997 (as amended) and in amendment of Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal Procedures, 2005, the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal modifies procedure 4 (ix), procedure 4(ix) (A) and inserts procedures 4 (ix) (C) and 4 (ix) (D) which read as under:

4(ix) Computation of fees payable on petitions/appeals/misc. applications-

The fees for filing an appeal shall be as provided in Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal (Form, Verification and the Fees for Filing an Appeal) Rules, 2003. The fees for filing a miscellaneous application shall be Rs.1, 000/-.

4 (ix) (A) The amount of fees payable on petitions, next hereinafter mentioned, filed before Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal shall be Rs.5000/-.

- (i) Petition seeking declaratory relief with consequential relief.
- (ii) Petition seeking directions, injunction and permanent injunction.
- (iii) Petition seeking enforcement of regulations framed by Telecom Regulatory Authority of India under the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997 (as amended).
- (iv) Any other petition not covered above shall also be accompanied with fees of Rs. 5000/-

Provided that the fees for filing petitions/claims/suits in the nature of recovery of money or an outstanding amount, before Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal shall be computed as follows:

(i) in petitions/claims/suits for money (including those for damages or compensation or total outstanding) due on the date of filing of petitions/claims/suits and

(ii) in petitions/claims/suits for money payable periodically under the terms of the agreement between the parties-

(a) Rs.5,000/- or an ad valorem rate of 1.5% of the total amount /sum total of all periodical amounts claimed , including interest, if any, where the sum total of all amounts claimed, including interest, is upto Rs.2 crore, whichever is more;

(b) an ad valorem rate of 1%, over and above the fees computed at (a) above, of the total amount /sum total of all periodical amounts claimed, including interest, if any, where the sum total of all amounts claimed, including interest, is more than Rs.2 crore but upto Rs. 5 crore;

(c) an ad valorem rate of 0.5%, over and above the fees computed at (b) above , of the total amount/sum total of all periodical amounts claimed, including interest, if any, where the sum total of all amounts claimed, including interest, is more than Rs. 5 crore, subject to a maximum fees of Rs. 50 lakhs.

4(ix) (C) Exemption from payment of fees-

The Bench of the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal, either on an application made by the party filing a petition/claim/suit/misc application or suo moto, may exempt the party, in deserving cases, from payment of fees required under procedures 4(ix), 4(ix) (A) and proviso to procedure 4(ix) (A) of the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal Procedures, 2005.

4(ix) (D) Refund of fees-

Where the dispute between the parties in the petition/claim/suit, filed before Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal, is settled without adjudication by the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal, the Bench of the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal may, on an application moved in this regard, order refund of such fees, paid by the party to the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal under the proviso to procedure 4(ix)(A), as it feels appropriate to the facts and circumstances of such petition/claim/suit.

TELECOM DISPUTES SETTLEMENT AND APPELLATE TRIBUNAL PROCEDURES 2005

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 16 (1) of the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India Act, 1997 (as amended) and in amendment of Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal Procedures, 2005, the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal directs that below Procedure-25, a new Chapter A be inserted, which reads as under:

CHAPTER A

TELECOM DISPUTES SETTLEMENT & APPELLATE TRIBUNAL (TDSAT) MEDIATION PROCEDURES

These Procedures will apply to all mediations connected with any Petition or other proceeding pending before the Telecom Disputes Settlement and Appellate Tribunal (referred to hereafter as TDSAT or Tribunal). These will also apply to pre-litigation matters that come up for mediation before the Mediation Centre of the Tribunal. The mediation in respect of any Petition or other proceeding pending before the Tribunal may be referred to the Mediation Centre which is already functioning informally at the Tribunal. Upon such a reference being made to the Centre, the same will be governed by the present Procedures. These Procedures shall come into force from the date of their notification on the official website of TDSAT, i.e., www.tdsat.nic.in.

Procedure (i) -
Procedure for directing parties to opt for mediation

The Tribunal may, after recording admissions and denials of the parties to a Petition or any proceeding, at the first hearing or at any subsequent hearing where it appears to the Tribunal that there exist elements of a settlement through mediation which may be acceptable to the parties, at the consensus of parties, refer the case for mediation.

Procedure (ii) -
Tribunal to give guidance to parties while referring the matter to Mediation Centre

While referring the matter to the Mediation Centre under Procedure (i), the Tribunal may give such guidance as it deems fit to the parties, by drawing their attention to the following relevant factors which parties should take into account, before they exercise their option to go for mediation, namely:

- (i) that it will be to the advantage of the parties, so far as time and expense are concerned, rather than seeking a trial on the

	disputes arising in the Petition; (ii) that, where there is a relationship between the parties which requires to be preserved, commercial or otherwise; (iii) that, where parties are interested in a final settlement which may lead to a compromise.
Procedure (iii) - Failure of attempts to settle disputes by mediation	Where a Petition has been referred for settlement for mediation and has not been settled or where it is felt by the mediator that it would not be proper in the interests of justice to proceed further with the matter, the Petition shall be referred back again to the Tribunal with a direction to the parties to appear before the Tribunal on a specific date as may be specified by the Registrar.
Procedure (iv) - Appointment of mediator	(a) Parties to a Petition or other proceeding may agree on the name of the sole mediator or joint mediator out of the panel of mediators under Procedure (v) for mediating between them. (b) The mediator so appointed or nominated, under Clause (a), should not be a person who suffers from the disqualifications referred to in Procedure (vii).
Procedure (v) - Panel of mediators	(a) The Tribunal shall, for the purpose of appointing the mediator between the parties in Petitions or proceedings, prepare a panel of the mediators and put the same on the Notice Board and official website of the TDSAT within 30 days of coming into force of these Procedures, with copy to the respective mediators. (b) The consent of the persons whose names are included in the panel shall be obtained before empanelling them. (c) The panel shall contain Annexure giving details of the qualifications of the mediators and their professional or technical experience in different fields.

	(d) The panel of mediators appointed under Clause (a) shall normally be for a period of 3 years from the date of appointment and further extension of the panel of mediators or any mediator shall be at the discretion of the Tribunal, as the case may be.
Procedure (vi) - Qualifications of persons to be empanelled under Procedure (v)	The following persons may be enlisted in the panel of mediators under Procedure (v), namely : (a) Retired District and Sessions Judges or Officers of any higher Judicial Service. (b) Legal practitioners with at least 15 years standing at the Bar at the level of the Supreme Court or the High Court or the District Courts. (c) Experts or other professionals with at least 15 years standing; or retired senior bureaucrats or retired senior executives; (d) Persons who are themselves experts in the mediation, irrespective of experience in conducting mediations who have done 40 hours training of mediation under any government body. (e) Institutions which are themselves experts in mediation and have been recognized as such by the Tribunal, provided the names of its members are approved by the Tribunal initially or wherever there is a change in membership.
Procedure (vii) - Disqualifications of persons	The following persons shall be deemed to be disqualified for being empanelled as mediators: (a) any person who has been adjudged as insolvent or persons (i) against whom criminal charges involving moral turpitude are framed by a criminal court and are pending; or (ii) persons who have been convicted by a criminal court for any offence involving moral turpitude. (b) any person against whom disciplinary proceedings have been initiated by the appropriate disciplinary authority which are pending or have resulted in a punishment.

	(c) such other categories of persons as may be notified by the Tribunal.
Procedure (viii) - Addition to or deletion from panel	The Tribunal, may in its discretion, from time to time, add or delete any person in the panel of mediators.
Procedure (ix) - Preference	The Tribunal may, while nominating any person from the panel of mediators referred to in Procedure (vi), consider his/her suitability for resolving the dispute(s) involved and give preference to those who have proven record of successful mediation or who have special qualification or experience in the mediation.
Procedure (x) - Duty of mediator to disclose certain facts	(a) When a person is approached in connection with his proposed appointment as mediator, he shall disclose any circumstance likely to give rise to a reasonable doubt as to his/her independence or impartiality. (b) Every mediator shall from the time of his appointment and throughout continuance of the mediation proceedings, without delay, disclose to the parties, about the existence of any circumstance referred to in Clause (a).
Procedure (xi) - Withdrawal of appointment	The Tribunal may withdraw the appointment of a mediator and replace him/her by another mediator, if: (a) upon information furnished by the mediator under Procedure (x) or upon any other information received from the parties or other persons, if the Tribunal, in which the Petition or proceeding is pending, is satisfied, that the said information has raised a reasonable doubt as to the independence or impartiality of the mediator; or (b) such person is interested or connected with the subject-matter of dispute(s) or is related to any one of the parties or to those who represent them, unless such objection is waived by all the parties in writing; or (c) such person has or is appearing for any of the parties in the Petition or in other proceeding(s).
Procedure (xii) - Procedure of mediation	(a) The parties may agree on the procedure to be followed by the mediator in the conduct of the mediation proceedings.

(b) Where the parties do not agree on any particular procedure to be followed by the mediator, the mediator shall follow the procedure hereinafter mentioned, namely :

(i) he/she shall fix, in consultation with the parties, a time schedule, the dates and the time of each mediation session, where all parties have to be present;

(ii) he/she shall hold the mediation at the place prescribed by the Tribunal or the place where the parties and the mediator jointly agree;

(iii) he/she may conduct joint or separate meetings with the parties;

(iv) each party shall furnish to the mediator, copies of pleadings or documents or such other information as may be required by him in connection with the issues to be resolved.

Provided that where the mediator is of the opinion that he/she should look into any original document, the Tribunal may permit him/her to look into the original document before such office of the Tribunal and on such date or time as the Tribunal may fix.

(v) each party shall furnish to the mediator such other information as may be required by him in connection with the issues to be resolved.

Procedure (xiii) -
Mediator not bound by Indian Evidence Act, 1872 or Code of Civil Procedure, 1908

The mediator shall not be bound by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 or the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, but shall be guided by the principles of natural justice, having regard to the rights and obligations of the parties, usages of trade, if any, and the circumstances of the dispute(s).

Procedure (xiv) - Representation of parties	The parties shall ordinarily be present personally or through constituted attorney at the sessions or meetings notified by the mediator. However, they may be represented by the counsel with permission of the mediator in such sessions or meetings.
Procedure (xv) - Consequences of non-attendance of parties at sessions or meetings on due dates	If a party fails to attend a session or a meeting notified by the mediator on account of deliberate or willful act, the other party or the mediator can apply to the Tribunal in which the Petition or proceeding is pending, in that case Tribunal may issue the appropriate directions having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, including imposition of costs.
Procedure (xvi) - Administrative assistance	In order to facilitate the conduct of mediation proceedings, the parties, or the mediator with the consent of the parties, may arrange for administrative assistance by a suitable institution or person as may be prescribed by the Tribunal.
Procedure (xvii) - Offer of settlement by parties	Any party to the Petition may, offer a settlement to the other party at any stage of the proceedings, with notice to the mediator.
Procedure (xviii) - Role of mediators	The mediator shall attempt to facilitate voluntary resolution of the dispute(s) by the parties, and communicate the view of each party to the other, assist them in identifying issues, reducing misunderstandings, clarifying priorities, exploring areas of compromise and generating options in an attempt to solve the dispute(s), emphasizing that it is the responsibility of the parties to take decision which affect them; he/she shall not impose any terms of settlement on the parties.
Procedure (xix) - Parties alone responsible for taking decision	The parties shall be made to understand that the mediator only facilitates in arriving at a decision to resolve dispute(s) and that he will not and cannot impose any settlement nor does the mediator give any assurance that the mediation will result in a settlement. The mediator shall not impose any decision on the parties.
Procedure (xx) - Time limit for completion of mediation	On the expiry of 60 days from the date fixed for the first appearance of the parties before the mediator, the mediation shall stand terminated, unless the Mediator, either on his own, or upon request by any of the parties, and upon hearing all the parties, is of the view that extension of time is necessary or may be useful; but such extension shall not be beyond a further period of 30 days.
